Oppimateriaali	International Week 2014: The Future is Ours: Multidisciplinary Encounters in a Global World This year’s IW focuses broadly on such themes as interdisciplinary networking on a local and global scale, empowering individuals and societies, local and global businesses, sustainable development, new innovations and good practices, and the future of higher education locally and globally. This week is meant to be a genuine meeting place for students, staff, researchers and working life partners from far and near with many interesting workshops, interactive happenings, fruitful partner negotiations and cool side events. The tradition of International Week started in year 2000 and has created many cooperation projects. In addition to multidisciplinary encounters, the week aims to present, promote and discuss the current themes of Social and Correctional Services, Health Care, Beauty and Cosmetics as well as Business Studies.
