Opiskelijan työmäärän jakautuminen	~1.Meeting 1 with the teacher: What is tandem, who works with who etc.2.Make a plan for your work with your pair. Send your plan to the teacher per e-mail within a week of the first meeting with the teacher. The plan should be done together with your pair and it should be written in English. In your plan you should write down approximately how often, where and when you plan to meet each other, what you intend to do and what you want to learn (which cultural themes are of interest, what is the role of the different languages in your meetings etc.). Try to make the plan as concrete as possible, it helps you two to take the most out of the tandem. You can of course change some of the planned activities if needed, the main thing is that you have a plan.3.Feedback for your plan from the teacher by e-mail. A meeting with the teacher.4.Regular meetings with your pair (preferably about 1 meeting / week). Choose your own ways of meeting and learning languages, cultures and professional life (personal interests, family, hobbies, studying, sports, cooking, travelling, movies, clubs, sightseeing, newspapers, cultural differences etc.)5.Meeting with the teacher. Discussion and plans for the rest of the process. Make the appointment with the teacher in time!6.Regular tandem meetings with your pair. What would you still want to learn and do? What would you want to show / tell about your own culture and language?7.Write an essay (Tandem report) in Finnish / in English / in Spanish / in Swedish / in German (3-5 text pages, Trebuchet 11) about your tandem experiences and learning process. Answer at least the following questions: What have you done during the tandem course? What have you learned about the language? What about the cultural aspects and

What are your future plans concerning the language and the culture you have studied in tandem? Send the essay to the teacher by e-mail at least 2 days before the feedback meeting. N.B. Depending on your tandem process it is possible to write this report either together with your pair or individually. Please, discuss this with the teacher and make the most of this part too!8.Meeting 3 with the teacher: Reflection and feedback.9.Getting credits (3) for the project (pass / fail).
Muut toteutusjärjestelyt	Ilmoittaudu mukaan, jos tandem kiinnostaa. Tandemparit päätetään, kun vaihto-opiskelijat saapuvat Laureaan.
