Having completed the study unit the student is able to	· function effectively in a multicultural working environment · demonstrate multicultural competence in using empowering & client-centred methods with individuals and groups from minority backgrounds. · cooperate with multicultural projects in working life.
Previous studies	Empowerment in Multicultural Counseling 10 CR., Anti-Oppressive Practice 10 CR., or related studies
Learning objectives	What is culturally sensitive and competent multicultural practice? How is the quality of life of minorities reduced by various processes of structural discrimination? Why do we need to develop different social work approaches for different client groups? How do we become self-reflective and responsive practitioners in working with minority groups?
Contents	Multicultural Work develops professional skills in culturally sensitive and competent multicultural practice based on anti-racist and anti-discriminatory approaches. It further focuses on issues of domestic violence and minorities, European and Finnish Immigration and integration policy, and structural discrimination and encourages students to critically interrogate their own work within the framework of current social work theory.
