Muut toteutusjärjestelyt	As mentioned above this course is based on a virtual game called InternationalCorrectional Services Worker of the Year in the game platform Seppo. Assignments are in the game which will be played in teams. Supporting material is provided in lectures. You will require a mobile device: phone, pad or laptop to participate. However, as the game is in teams one device per team is sufficient. Also Constructive communication (nonviolent communication) will be taught as a professional and personal communication method and to facilitate self-development.
