Previous studies
Learning objectives	Competence aims and evaluation criteria are directly linked to the Common European Framework for languages. Many workplaces require English skills of at least a B2.1 level according to the above framework (a more detailed evaluation criteria, which is directly linked to the Laurea's grading scale, can be found from the Optima platform for this course). This is equivalent to a grade 3 according to the Laurea grading system. A student should be able to • communicate orally in workplace and study related dialogues • produce workplace and study related texts • use field and study related vocabulary • be aware of field-related intercultural influences and possibilities
Contents	• Oral communication skills needed for the workplace: presentations; describing services; interviewing skills; • Written skills necessary for the workplace: reports, presentations; summary writing; • Intercultural competences: social dialogue situations; internationalization at home • Career development I: CV creation; Job application; LinkedIn development
Study material	All material will be provided in Optima
Evaluation criteria and methods	• Evaluation includes both a written and oral demonstration of skills, which are graded 0-5 • Both of the above skills demonstrations need to be accepted to pass the course

Implementation plan Finished

	• Various assignments will also be given during the course which also need to be completed to pass the course. These will mostly be graded as pass/fail • The final grade from the course will be given based on the aforementioned criteria as a grade between 0-5. The final grade which will be seen on the student's certificate is made up of 50% from the oral evaluation and 50% from the written evaluation.
